VICE-PRESIDENT MAY VISIT HERE

Effort is Being Made to Persuade James S. Sherman to Come to Rushville.

AS JAMES E. WATSON'S GUEST

Retail Merchants Association Hopes to Make His Visit Here Occasion of Big Gathering.

Tentative plans were made at the regular meeting of the Rushville Retail Merchants Association meeting last night for a "Big Wednesday" extraordinary on September 27, which will be two weeks from next Wednesday. The motion that another popular bargain day be held this fall when the weather is ideal for such occasions was made near the close of the meeting. The vote was unanimous with the small number of merchants there and a canvass will be made to determine whether or not a majority of the business men are in favor of the day.

An effort is being made to get James S. Sherman, vice-president of the United States, here on that day for an address. James E. Watson, according to an announcement made at the meeting last night, will attempt to persuade the United States' second highest official to come here on that day as his guest. In case he does come he will doubtless make a speech.

It is understood that merchants have been conferring with Mr. Watson for some time in regard to the arrangement for a visit of Mr. Sherman here. Mr. Watson left Indianapolis yesterday afternoon for Washington, D. C., on urgent business. He expects to return here Sunday evening or Monday. It will be possible that Mr. Watson will have some definite news concerning the proposed visit when he returns.

It may be recalled that such a movement was started last summer. Mr. Sherman made every preparation for a trip to Indiana to be the guest of the former congressman and at the last minute was forced to call off the visit on account of pressing business intervening. It is thought that plans for his visit here will probably be carried out this time.

The visit of the vice-president of the United States in this city should be the occasion for a monster gathering in Rushville. No less an important personage than the second highest official in the nation should attract thousands of people and there would no doubt be State-wide interest attached to the speech which he would make here.

WINS FIRST PREMIUM

Casper Johnson Takes Blue Ribbon
With Team of Geldings.

Casper Johnson, living west of the city, who is showing his stable of light harness horses at the State fair this week, won first premium in the roadster class with his beautiful match team of geldings in the horse show in the coliseum at the fair ground last night. He was compelled to show against highly bred horses from all over the United States and the victory comes as quite an honor to Rush county horsemen and horse flesh. The team has excited much comment here. It will be shown at the fall horse show here.

Cloudy tonight and Saturday. Slightly cooler in south portion tonight.

POWDER FACTORY RAZED

Last Vestige of Bell Company at St. Paul is Removed.

Bell's Powder Company is no more. The last vestige of the same was removed when the one-time proposed famous plant was wrecked by the former treasurer of the concern, George E. Swartz. The plant was situated at the southern limits of St. Paul, near the St. Paul Stone Quarries Company plant. Mr. Swartz took the material in the building to the old Jenkins homestead, where he and the Haymond brothers are engaged in constructing several houses and Mr. Swartz will use the lumber in constructing a barn on the premises.

JOHN BOYD WINS WITH JERSEY HERD

Takes Five Firsts, Two Seconds and a Third in Cattle Show at State Fair.

PREMIUM WITH EVERY ENTRY

John F. Boyd, proprietor of the Riverside stock farm in Jersey City, who is showing his splendid herd of Jerseys at the State fair in Indianapolis this week literally "cleaned up" yesterday when the Jersey show was held. He won a premium in every division in which his Jerseys were entered, taking five firsts, two seconds and one third. He won the first premium with Togo Lad, a bull calf under one year old; both first and third with heifer calves under one year; both first and second in the produce of cows class; second in the aged herd class; first in the young herd class and first with his champion heifer under two years old. It is likely that Mr. Boyd will win a premium in every class in which he shows so far above other Jerseys is his herd.

MOTHER CAME AFTER DAUGHTER

With Carnival Company Showing
Here This Week.

WILL RETURN TO CAMDEN, O.

When the John R. Smith Carnival Company, which is in this city this week, showed in Camden, Ohio, last week, one of the employees, Charles Boyd met a girl by the name of Harris. It was a case of love at first sight and when Boyd reached this city he sent the girl of his choice a ticket to this city. The girl arrived the first of the week and her mother, Mrs. Nellie Harris, came today looking for her child. The woman appealed to Chief of Police McAllister to aid her in locating the girl. Boyd and the girl were found and taken to the home of Chief McAllister, where they met the mother. After a court of inquiry Mrs. Harris was convinced that the two young people could not live without each other and they will return to Camden and get married.

Word was received from Milroy this afternoon that at least one hundred people from that town would board the special booster train which will be run over the Big Four from here Thursday evening of next week.

DEMANDS LARGE SUM AS ALIMONY

Mrs. Laura Joyce Makes Sensational
Charges in Complaint For Divorce
From Edward Joyce.

GRANTS RESTRAINING ORDER

Plaintiff Alleges Cruel and Inhuman
Treatment and Says he Threatened Her Life.

Mrs. Laura Joyce, through her attorneys, Megee and Kiplinger, filed suit today for a divorce from Edward Joyce. She demands $7,500 alimony and $50 per month for the support of her four children. The complaint states that they were married December 24, 1893, and lived together until September 7, 1911.

Mrs. Joyce alleges cruel and inhuman treatment and states that he cursed her and called her vile and vulgar names in the presence of their children, on several different occasions. It is also set forth that the defendant threatened to kill her and did strike and choke her. She states that Mr. Joyce cursed her children and several times came home drunk and when in this condition would abuse both herself and children.

The plaintiff states that she married Mr. Joyce when but 16 years old and that he did not have over $1,600 in property. She states that with her help and assistance and through her efforts he now has 120 acres of land in Union township, valued at $15,000 and other personal and real estate, making a total of $20,000. For her assistance in helping him to accumulate this wealth she asks $7,500 and a reasonable fee for her attorneys; also $50 a month for the support of the children.

Judge Blair this morning granted a restraining order prohibiting Mr. Joyce from disposing of any of the property.

TO IMPROVE STATION.

Shelbyville Republican: J. D. Ballard, carpenter-contractor, has been awarded the contract by the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction Company to enlarge the station at this place, and he began on the work Wednesday. Part of the freight platform on the south side of the structure is being torn away and two toilet rooms will be installed there.

IS STRICKEN ON EVE OF OPERATION

Miss Jennie Hilligoss, Formerly of This City, Dies of Appendicitis. in Anderson.

HAS MANY RELATIVES HERE

Drs. J. C. Sexton and Lowell M.
Green Rush to Her Side, But Arrive Too Late.

Miss Jennie Hilligoss, age 35, the daughter of Mrs. Frances Hilligoss, 2324 Fletcher street, died of appendicitis at St. John's hospital shortly after 4 o'clock Thursday evening, says the Anderson Herald.

The body was removed to the home of the late Miss Hilligoss' mother. The time of the funeral had not been fixed last night, but it was thought the burial will take place at Rushville, the former home of the family.

Miss Hilligoss began sinking early yesterday when it was intended to undertake to relieve her by surgical operation. Dr. J. C. Sexton and Dr. L. M. Green, both of Rushville, were summoned by the family, and were at the hospital to perform the operation when it was discovered that Miss Hilligoss was dying.

Miss Hilligoss was stricken while attending a family reunion at Marion on last Friday and although in great pain was able to travel home. Her condition continued to grow critical and she was removed to St. John's hospital on Wednesday last and an operation was decided upon as the last resort to save her life. Dr. Sexton, who has a private hospital at Rushville, was the family physician several years ago.

Miss Hilligoss was well known in the city where she had lived for nearly fifteen years. The family came from Rush county and since then lived at the present residence. Miss Hilligoss is survived by her mother and one brother and four sisters--Mrs. Daniel Matlock and Mrs. William Frazee of Rushville; Mrs. Charles S. Parkhurst, Mrs. Ethel Towell and Ralph Hilligoss, all of this city.

The Hilligoss family has suffered much distress in recent years. The father, Ira Hilligoss, died suddenly of heart trouble a few years ago. Miss Nellie Hilligoss died soon afterward. Carl Hilligoss died but recently in Indianapolis.

MRS. JOSEPH COFFMAN DEAD

Former Resident Passed Away in San Antonio, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Amos received a telegram yesterday from Joseph Coffman, in San Antonio, Texas, stating that Mrs. Coffman had died there Wednesday night. Mrs. Coffman was well known in this city, where they resided for several years before going to Texas. They moved to San Antonio about six years ago. Burial will take place in Oxford, O., Saturday and several friends from here will attend the services.

ALCYFRAS LOSES RACE TO EVELYN W.

Jones Takes Lead in First Heat and Goes the Half in 59 3/4 Seconds.

IS NEW FAIR TRACK RECORD

The special match at the State fair yesterday between Aleyfras, driven by Harrie Jones, and Evelyn W., driven by Shank, was a feature of the afternoon's racing.

The first heat of the special match race produced a new track record for pacing mares, Evelyn W. getting the credit when she won the heat in 2:01 3/4. Jones took Aleyfras across in front and grabbed the pole away from Shank, with Evelyn W. Aleyfras set a whirlwind pace, reaching the quarter in 29 1/2 seconds, and getting on to the half in 59 3/4 seconds. She stayed in front to the three-quarters in 1:30 1/2. Shank made his drive with Evelyn W., coming into the stretch, collared Aleyfras and beat her to the wire by half a length. The time, 2:01 3/4, has only been surpassed on the Indianapolis track a few times.

Jones tried different tactics in the second heat, but could not win. He saved Aleyfras for a rush in the stretch, letting Evelyn W. lead all the way. Shank refused to be caught napping in the stretch and easily drew away when Aleyfras challenged. The time of the mile, 2:07, with the last half in 1:01 1/2.

SUSPICION RESTS ON A LOCAL MAN

Thief Entered Betker Haberdashery
Early This Morning and Stole
$5.50 From Cash Register.

ENTERS THROUGH THE CELLAR

Suspicion rests on one man whom it is believed entered T. W. Betker's haberdashery in Second street at an early hour this morning and tapped the cash register for all it contained. It so happened that only $5.50 was left in the register over night. The thief went into the cellar through the grating in the sidewalk and up the stairway to the first floor. Mr. Betker believes that the robbery occurred about three o'clock this morning and suspects a local man of being the guilty party. The robbery was reported to Thomas McAllister, chief of police, and the name of the person suspected is known by him.

The fire department answered a call from box 35, corner of First and Pearl streets this morning at three o'clock, but there was nothing doing. The box door was open and an investigation is being made.

BUSINESS MEN SANCTION TRAIN

Are in Favor of Booster Excursion
Being Run to Greensburg Next Thursday Night.

TICKETS ARE BEING SOLD NOW

No Doubt But What Required Number of Tickets Will be Sold—Association Meets.

The principal thing considered at the regular meeting of the Rushville Retail Merchants Association last evening was the booster trip to Greensburg which it is planned will be made next Thursday evening, the occasion being a home-coming and jubilee there. The promoters of the excursion to advertise Rushville and the annual fall horse show has the sanction of the merchants as was shown by their unanimous favorable vote last evening and work was started this morning to sell the tickets. There is no doubt but that one hundred and fifty tickets, which the Big Four requires be sold to get a special train can be disposed of.

The meeting was not opened last evening until about eight-thirty o'clock. Secretary W. O. Feudner, who was appointed at the last meeting to investigate what arrangements could be made for a special train into this city during the horse show, reported that he had written the four railroads entering this city and had received one reply, that from the Pennsylvania. That road said that a special train back to Shelbyville on any night of the horse show could be had for a guarantee of fifty dollars. It is thought that similar arrangements can be made with the other three roads so that all of the crowds coming here for the show may remain until evening. Mr. Feudner was given more time to inquire into the special train question.

When the booster train for Greensburg was mentioned, members of the committee reported that over one hundred persons had agreed to go on the train and the opinion was expressed that the required number of round-trip tickets could easily be disposed of at eighty cents each. The merchants did not feel like they should be responsible for the money to pay the fare of the members of the band and for the fireworks and it was said that the twenty-five dollars for that purpose could be raised among the excursionists.

President Schrichte made a speech favorable to the special and said that he believed that merchants should sanction such a thing as he believed that it would serve to advertise the city and would leave the impression with the neighboring city of Greensburg that Rushville is very much alive and wide-awake. Several merchants said that the aid of the local Eagles should be solicited in selling the tickets and members of the committee said that the members of that lodge were eager to assist in making the excursion a success.

It was finally decided that the train should be ordered this morning, which was done, and that the committee should begin selling the tickets at once. If the required number of tickets is not disposed of by Monday or it is thought that not enough can be disposed of, the money will be refunded to all of those who purchased.

The excursion should carry at least three hundred people to Greensburg according to present indications. The Rushville band has consented very kindly to make the trip free of charge and there will be no expense attached to the music with the exception of paying the fares of the members. It is planned for Rushville to make a great demonstration

Daffydil Doings Down In Dippy Dell

There was a terrible noise in Norm Norris' barber shop. A crowd gathered to learn what it was all about. The surging multitude thronged about the door and somebody put in a call for the extra police force. No one seemed to know the defugility and the anxiety pictured on the faces of the worried multitude was enough in itself to prove that something awful was taking place within the very shadow of the tower of the hall of justice and still no attempt was being made to put the fire on it. A one-arm man with a Scandinavian beard suggested that he throw a bomb in the front, but the gang wouldn't stand for that. Jack Crush joined the vox populi present and opined that he could crush 'em with one bingo. Norm Norris rushed to the door and threw it open. Such an odor! Dale Ripley Jackson, the second barber had been raising a stink because the fifty-third customer he had asked that day wouldn't give him a chew o' tobacco. While old King Excitement prevailed and Dale Ripley was about as excited as Liza was when she crossed the ice trailed by the blood hounds, Henry George Washington Lee Booker T. Clay, named after that illustrious Kentucky statesman, who shines 'em up, pegged into the jam on his crutch and screamed: "If A. B. Flinn tore up the brick streets, would Sheriff Clate Be-bout?"

MODERN SIGHTS TOO MUCH FOR "LIFERS"

Trip Outside Prison Walls Produced Collapse.

Indianapolis, Sept. 8.—Warden E. J. Fogarty of the state prison, who called to see Governor Marshall yesterday, related a story of an automobile ride of ten miles he recently gave to four inmates of the prison, whose aggregate term of imprisonment thus far has been 105 years, one having served forty years, one thirty-five years, one seventeen years, and one thirteen. All were "lifers." The ride was from Michigan City to Laporte, where two of the prisoners saw for the first time trolley cars, autos and many other signs of modern achievements hidden to them in the prison walls. So great was the surprise to the prisoners, the warden said, that two of them utterly collapsed from nervous excitement.

Lesson XI.—Third Quarter, For Sept. 10, 1911.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Dan. i, 8-20—Memory Verses, 8, 9—Golden Text, Rom. xiv, 21—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

The study of prophecy should be to every child of God most fascinatingly attractive, for "to Him give all the prophets witness," and "the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy" (Acts x, 43; Rev. xix, 10). The Lord has told the prophets all that He intends to do, and prophecy is therefore a light in a dark place to show us the way we are going (Amos iii, 7; I Pet. i, 19-21). Our blessed Lord is just the same as when on the way to Emmaus, and the same evening in the midst of the disciples He opened to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself (Luke xxiv, 25-27, 44-46), and He still loves to do so.

In one of His discourses He mentioned the prophet Daniel, and the prophet Ezekiel also mentions him by name (Matt. xxiv, 15; Ezek. xiv, 14). Ezekiel and Daniel were both among the captives in Babylon for their good and the good of others (Jer. xxiv, 4-7). They were the Lord's messengers, and in them was seen the wisdom and power of the true and living God as contrasted with the wisdom of this world. I find it helpful to my own soul to watch God working and to remember that He is as ready now to work for His glory in those who are wholly His as were Daniel and his friends.

Notice in verses 2, 9, 17, of our lesson chapter that it was the Lord who gave the king of Judah into the hands of the King of Babylon. He also brought Daniel into favor with the prince of the eunuchs and gave to him and his friends knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom. "Whatsoever the Lord pleased that did He." "He doeth according to His will in the army of heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth." "He worketh all things after the counsel of His own will" (Ps. cxxxv, 6; Eph. i, 11).

These young men were chosen to stand before the king of Babylon (verse 5), but they never forgot that they always stood before a much greater King, even the Lord, the King of Israel (Zeph. iii, 15). Their beautiful names signifying God is my judge, Jehovah is gracious, who is as God is, Jehovah my keeper, might be covered by idolatrous names, but what men might call them did not affect their standing before God.

Even in the matter of eating and drinking we are to glorify God and not be conformed to the age in which we live (I Cor. x, 31; Rom. xii, 1, 2). So Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with food offered to idols (verse 8). In this matter God wrought for them, not only giving them favor with those set over them, but also causing them to thrive better on their plain food than did the others who ate the portion of the king's meat (verses 9, 14, 15).

It is not so much the food we eat, either as to quantity or quality, as the blessing of God upon it. On one occasion our Lord taught that "not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man," and so Paul wrote, "I know and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus that there is nothing unclean of itself" (Matt. x, 11; Rom. xiv, 14). Ordinarily we are to eat what is set before us, asking no questions, but in Daniel's case it was a matter of sanctioning idolatry or standing for the true God, and when with us under any circumstances it becomes a question of God or the devil there is only one thing to do. We cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons (I Cor. x, 21).

We are not to imagine that God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom (verse 17) apart from study on their part, whether it was the wisdom of Egypt or the wisdom from above, which is first pure, then peaceable, gentle and easy to be entreated (Jas. iii, 17). Some of us can almost imagine with what relief and joy they would turn from the books of Egypt to the book of the law of the Lord and how there would be fulfilled to them, "Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled." The natural man can grasp the wisdom of this world, but the things of God knoweth no man, but the spirit of God. In his understanding of visions and dreams also he would doubtless profit by the experience of Joseph and the ability given to him and to others.

With what sublime confidence in God he said to the king in connection with his first dream that if time was granted to him he would show the interpretation and how gloriously God honored his faith by revealing to him the secret in a vision of the night (chapter ii, 16-19). See in chapter ii, 28, 29, 47, how he honored God, who revealed to him the secret, and how because of this the king honored God also as the God of gods and a Lord of kings.

So God was glorified in Daniel. "And Daniel continued" (verse 21). There is a most profitable meditation in those words, and we are reminded of Acts xxvi, 22, "Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day." Paul believed Moses and the prophets just as Daniel did, and in Dan. ix, 2, he tells us that he had been studying the word of the Lord by Jeremiah, the prophet.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning Sept. 10, 1911.

Topic.—My denomination; roots, trunk, branches, fruit.—Acts xx, 17-35. (Honorary members' meeting.) Edited by Rev. Sherman H. Doyle, D. D.

Christian Endeavor has always emphasized denominational loyalty. Its interdenominationalism has never meant undenominationalism. It has stood for interdenominational fellowship and cooperation in many moral and philanthropic movements, but it has never aimed or even desired to weaken the ties that bind Christian young people to the particular denomination to which they belong. Instead the purpose has ever been to strengthen these ties by urging upon all a truer and deeper knowledge of the history, distinctive characteristics and benevolent and missionary activities of their respective denominations. Moreover, good results have been accomplished. Broader fellowship has increased love and loyalty for our own and increasing knowledge has inspired a greater interest and zeal in all denominational agencies and activities.

The true church is spiritual and invisible. It is not an external organization, but is composed of living souls bound by a living faith to Jesus Christ as a personal and individual Saviour. But when we consider the diverse natures of men and the many questions involved in the subject of union we are not surprised that there should be many differences of opinion and that those holding similar views as to doctrine, church government or worship should unite for fellowship, for worship and for service.

This has been the case, and the various Christian denominations are the result. But this does not interfere with the essential spiritual unity of the church, nor is it necessarily a hindrance to the advancement of Christ's kingdom. Each denomination appeals to those whose bent of mind finds greater satisfaction in it, and yet all lead to Christ, the only Saviour. The various denominations are but different ways to the same end, and the more reasonable and intelligent the ways the greater the number likely to reach the desired end. They are but the different regiments of the same army, and while in a way separated yet they have but one captain and leader, Jesus Christ, the great Head of the church and the Captain of salvation.

It has always been true and it always will be true that—

Like a mighty army
Moves the church of God.

And the only possible way for the army to succeed is for each soldier to do his duty wherever he may be.

As soldiers in the Christian army we will best advance the interests of Christ's kingdom by love and loyalty to our denominations. Let us know why we belong to one rather than to another, and, above all, let us be interested and actively engaged in the worship and work of the denomination to which we may belong. There is no church of Christ which is not engaged in doing something for the advancement of His kingdom and the uplift

CASCARETS, FOR A SICK, SOUR STOMACH

Gently But Thoroughly Cleanse and regulate Your Stomach, Liver and Bowels While You Sleep.

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means, indigestion; a disordered stomach, which can not be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they cure indigestion, because they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, indigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended forever. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

IF YOU HAVE ECZEMA OR ANY SKIN OR SCALP TROUBLE HERE IS GOOD NEWS

You have probably tried one or more remedies with small success. This costs money and it is uncertain. We want you to try ZEMO, the clean liquid remedy, but we do not want you to pay for it unless you are satisfied with results. We have so much faith in Zemo that we want you to try it by sending to the E. W. Rose Medicine Co., 3032 Olive St., St. Louis, Mo., 10c in stamps to pay postage for a generous sample of ZEMO and ZEMO (antiseptic) SOAP and our 32 page booklet on skin diseases, OR get a bottle today at F. E. Wolcott's Drug Store and if you are not pleased with results they will refund your money. ZEMO is a clean scientific preparation that washes away and destroys the germ life and the poisons that cause the trouble. Stops the itching at once and results can be seen after one application. ZEMO absolutely cures eczema in all its forms as well as hives, rashes, acne, tetter, barbers itch, prickly heat, etc., on infants the same as on grown persons.

Indorsed and sold by druggists everywhere and in Rushville at F. E. Wolcott's Drug Store.

Whiskey or Beer Habit

ORRINE is the standard remedy and is everywhere recognized as the most successful and reliable home treatment for the "Drink Habit." It is highly praised by thousands of women, because it has restored their loved ones to lives of sobriety and usefulness, and the weekly wages which at one time were spent for "Drink" are now used to purchase the necessities and many comforts for home. Any wife or mother who wants to save her husband or son from "Drink" will be glad to know that she can purchase ORRINE at our store, and if no benefit is obtained after a trial the money will be refunded. Ask for a free booklet telling all about ORRINE.

BIBLE READINGS.

A Veteran on the Pledge.

[The writer of the following letter is an old time Endeavorer and one of the most successful business men in the United States. At the present time he is the executive head of a great business enterprise and one of the corps of business experts of the second largest industrial corporation in this country. We commend his words regarding the pledge to the present day Endeavorers.—Ed.]

As the years pass it is a pleasure to keep in touch with our friends and fellow workers of twenty-five years ago in Christian Endeavor. No warmer friends can be found than my own who were with me in those days.

One of the greatest losses that I have experienced in recent years has been my retirement from active work in Christian Endeavor.

The lift that the pledge gave me when inclined to "sag" and let a sluggish liver or bad temper rule my tongue in the prayer meeting merits my loyalty and everlasting thanksgiving for the pledge.

I always held that the pledge is the greatest blessing that the individual Christian experienced in giving his mind and heart "liberty." How many times we feel the truth of Paul's words, "The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak." So we need to put backbone into the unwilling flesh, and this is what the pledge does. Then how glad we are that we had this lift over a pitfall!

At sixty-four years of age I can say that the years of my activity in Christian Endeavor were the most helpful and delightful of my life. L. M. B.

A Wide Spread Movement.

No influence has been more wide-spread and helpful in the Christian uplift of the people than the Christian Endeavor movement. I am glad that I have had opportunity from time to time to be of some service to the movement.—Booker T. Washington.

SUSPECTED OF WIFE MURDER

Is Indiana to Have Duplicate of Beattie Case?

HOWLA-REMARIED TOO SOON

When Eugene Howla Took Another Wife Within Three Weeks of the Sudden and Mysterious Death of His Wife at Terre Haute, Suspicion Was Created and the Man Was Arrested Pending Grand Jury Investigation.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 8.—Pending a grand jury investigation of the death of his wife July 12, when he reported that she took an overdose of chloroform to relieve pain, Francis M. Connors was arrested and is held. Suspicion as to the truth of his story was aroused by his marriage three weeks later to Mary Owen, to whom he had been showing attentions for several weeks prior to his wife's death. He was known as Eugene Howla, owner of a harness shop, while living with his first wife, but the license for marriage with the Owen girl was in the name of Francis M. Connors, by which name he had been known at the house of her father, Jasper Owen, where he lived.

CAN'T FIND RECORD

Justice's Failure to File Marriage Certificate Prostrates Wife.

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 8.—A woman's sense of intuition was the direct cause of revealing a serious error on the part of the officiating justice in reporting the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Smith of Indianapolis and Martinsville, Ind., which took place here on Oct. 15, 1902.

To quiet the fears of his wife that all was not regular, Smith visited the office of County Clerk Christoph and made inquiry as to the record. A search of the files failed to reveal any notations and consequently Mrs. Smith is near a nervous breakdown.

The Smiths claim the ceremony was performed by a justice of the peace named Patterson, but a person of that name cannot be recalled here.

DEADLY HANDSHAKE

As Bad as Roller Towels and Common Drinking Cups, Says Doctor.

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 8.—At the meeting of the Wayne County Medical association Dr. David W. Stevenson, secretary of the Indiana Medical association, introduced a resolution declaring hand shaking as dangerous as the roller towel and the public drinking cup. Dr. Stevenson is earnest in his war on the time-honored hand shaking as a means of salutation, but the physicians in general were not in accord and the resolution was not adopted.

Death Invades Lodgeroom.

Muncie, Ind., Sept. 8.—While Mrs. Abraham Schultz, forty-nine years old, a well known lodge woman and an officer in the local lodge, Knights and Ladies of Honor, was performing the duties of her office in the lodgeroom, she was seized by an attack of coughing, and almost before others in the room could reach her side she was dead.

Evidence of Foul Play.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 8.—That Tony Jung, aged twenty-two, a sawmill employe, met with foul play is the opinion of the authorities here who are working on the case. The body of Jung was found floating in the Ohio river and his skull was crushed and the face was badly bruised.

The Burglar Got Away.

Marion, Ind., Sept. 8.—Finding a burglar in his home, Charles Planette attacked the intruder and was getting the best of the fight when the burglar drew a knife and slashed Planette in the breast and right forearm, escaping through a window. Planette is not seriously hurt.

Higher Than Was Estimated.

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 8.—The contract for the erection of the South Bend high school building has been awarded for $248,904. Work will begin at once. The cost of the building when completed will be $350,000, which is $55,000 higher than was estimated.

Will Be Taken Back to Kentucky.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 8.—Robert Gardner was arrested at Tell City on the charge of stealing a horse from his brother, Barney Gardner, living in Kentucky opposite Tell City. He will be taken back to Kentucky for trial.

Drowns Himself in Cistern.

Madison, Ind., Sept. 8.—Miss Ruth Goley returned to her home from a lawn fete, left a note for her mother, in which she said she was disappointed in life, and committed suicide by drowning in a cistern.

Got a Fatal Shock.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 8.—Harold A. Jones, an electrician, aged twenty-six years, was killed in the basement of a department store when he touched a live wire.

Eczema Stopped for 10 Cents

When you get tired of wasting dollars on high priced alcohol preparations buy a 10 cent box of Plex, "the quick-healing salve." It will open your eyes. Two or three applications produce wonderful results, in eczema, Cuban itch, dandruff or any other skin trouble. For a quick cure try Plex.

Plex is a wonder-working, penetrating ointment. It destroys germs, cleans and heals quicker than anything else you ever heard of. Has a hundred uses in every home.

One application cures itching piles. Repairs sores, stiff muscles like magic. Cures croup and sore throat. Splendid for catarrh. Has no equal for sore, aching, sweaty feet. Best thing known for cuts, etc.

A big box of Plex costs only 10 cents, but it's worth its weight in gold. Your druggist has it or can easily get it for you.

Treasury Department Office of the Comptroller of the Currency.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 24, 1911.

Whereas, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that The Rush County National Bank of Rushville, located in the City of Rushville in the county of Rush and State of Indiana, has complied with all the provisions of the Act of Congress to enable National Banking Associations to extend their corporate existence and for other purposes—approved July 12, 1882, as amended by the Act, approved April 12, 1902. Now, therefore, I Thomas P. Kane, deputy and acting Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that The Rush County National Bank of Rushville located in the city of Rushville in the county of Rush and State of Indiana is authorized to have succession for a period specified in its amended articles of association: namely until close of business on August 24, 1931.

In testimony whereof witness my hand and seal of this office this 24th day of August, 1911.

School Bell's Ringing.

The happy vacation days are over. It's back to the clean school room for the boys and girls of Rushville and Rush county who have been enjoying the freedom of the "do-as-they-please" season when they came and went as they willed and enjoyed the outdoor sunshine. The irresistible call of the back yard, the cool grove and the shady orchard must be overcome and the school kids must keep their pent-up enthusiasm in their chests until they are once outside the school house door.

The opening of school comes as a great relief to many a burdened family. The child who is continually asking mother where is this and that and what can he do next will be away from home for a few hours each day and the weary mother will be given a little opportunity to think and rest each day.

The country boy can find much to satisfy his desire to investigate and much to satisfy his longing for pleasure for the old swimming holes abound, the hay mows are numerous, and the apple orchards are thick but the boy who lives in the modern town is often liable to get into mischief when there is something lacking in his surroundings to fill that desire for something new. Modern cities and towns are installing public playgrounds. Every town needs them. But the average city, such as Rushville, offers no more elevating pastime for the youths than plundering the orchards of the village and swapping stories on the curbstone around the court house yard.

With the return of teachers and pupils to the work of the school year, anxious for study after some weeks of recreation, the question comes as to what the rest of us can do—what part we may have—in the furtherance of the cause of education in our schools.

It would seem that the first duty of any resident, be he parent or not, is to be interested in the school system, assuring those in charge that any reasonable call for assistance and support will be responded to cheerfully. And this interest should be maintained throughout the year, with occasional inquiries and visits to the school, of whose workings it is the privilege and duty of all to know. Associated with this is also the duty of keeping the child interested in the school affairs, in every way co-operating with the teachers in their efforts. It is only under such conditions—proper working conditions between teachers, pupils and parent—that the best results are attained. Each party to the arrangement has his responsibilities.

A young man recently went through Wall street, Chicago, and elsewhere, and could not raise a loan of $10,000,000. This country is no sort of a place for a young man to start in business.

Champ Clark says no man ever declined the presidential nomination, but we are acquainted with a number of people that would decline if it was offered them.

Baltimore thinks it will get the Democratic convention, but the Un-terfired will never go east of Kentucky whiskey for a Maryland ter-rapin.

Kaiser William if necessary will sacrifice his sons on the altar of his country, but it would be better to keep the peace and use the altar for chopping up sausage meat for breakfast.

It is supposed to take the power of God to tell whether one man is really good or bad, and yet our politicians think they can decide between the thousand complex personalities and actions that separate a good trust from a bad trust.

Fort Wayne News: The story that James E. Watson may again seek a congressional nomination in the Sixth district is a decidedly unlikely one. Mr. Watson is now engaged in a business that he could not afford to sacrifice for a political battle and he is sensible enough to realize that the enemies he made during the troublous years he dispensed postoffices and other patronages would lead him a dog's life in case he again contested for a congressional berth. Mr. Watson should be given credit for at least a glimmer of reason.

Fashion Notes on Dress Goods and Silks

Style tendencies are very marked on wool and silk fabrics. The textures are so different—the colors so beautifully blended—and the prices so reasonable—that looking will be for you a pleasant surprise. Chief among the woollens are Wool Velour, Ratines, Scotch Mixtures, Golf Cloth, Zibeline Effects, Cravatette Serge, Broadcloth, Serge, Taffetas and Poplins.

In regard to color, blue will lead. Tans and browns are gaining in favor, and the outlook for gray is excellent. Velvets and velveteen are very popular and to be found here in all colors. Corduroy will be worn a great deal. As to Silks, Satin, Duchesse, Messaline, Satin Liberty and Crepe Metemps will be the leading staples. The fancy silks are exquisite and combine all that is best in Persian and Oriental designs.

SOCIETY NEWS

Sixty or more ladies enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. E. K. Westhafer Wednesday afternoon, when her charming North Twelfth street home was made the meeting place of the M. E. Women's Home Missionary Society, says the New Castle Courier. The occasion was the quarterly guest day of the society and the general invitation was well responded to. Splendid papers were read by Mrs. H. L. Burr, Mrs. J. Ed Rogers. One of the features of the afternoon was the music furnished by a three-piece orchestra in which Misses Lois Compton, Edith Foust and Ruth Strain played. The house was fragrant with beautiful bouquets of pink and red roses. The program concluded with a brief and opportune talk by the president, Mrs. J. F. Coffield, and the singing of a hymn. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served in the dining room, and during the refreshment hour the trio played. Afterward an enjoyable program on the piano player brought in for the occasion was skillfully rendered by Miss Frances McMahon of Rushville, the guest of Mrs. Westhafer, who assisted the hostess in doing the honors of the afternoon.

Miss Clara Applegate, daughter of Charles Applegate and William L. Woodburn of Evanston, Ill., were united in marriage last evening at 8 o'clock at the United Presbyterian church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. W. Jamieson, assisted by the Rev. T. H. Hannah, Jr., of Bloomington, Ind. The ring ceremony was used and the bride was given away by her father, Miss Pearl Applegate was maid of honor and Hugh Brown of Bloomington, was the best man. Kennard Allen and Edward Applegate were the ushers. The church was decorated with ferns and palms. Miss Mary Belle Jamieson played Lohengrin's wedding march as the wedding party entered the church. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Applegate residence, corner of Fifth and Arthur streets. The out-of-the-city guests included the following: Miss Anna Woodburn, Samuel Woodburn, Ralph Curry, Hugh Brown, Morris Hunter and the Rev. Mr. Hannah of Bloomington, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cox of Carthage. Mr. and Mrs. Woodburn left last night for Evanston, Ill., where Mr. Woodburn is employed as a professor in Lohengrin in Northwestern University.

AMUSEMENTS

The Palace will have the usual change of program tonight. "The Crusaders" is an Edison drama telling a story of the early invasions of the Christians. The Lubin "His Birthday" is said to be a fine picture and is a very touching drama. A new illustrated song will be sung.

The Portola will have a feature show tonight, showing three reels of pictures. "The Minute Man" is an Edison film, showing a vivid description of the battle of Lexington. The picture is said to have been taken on the battle ground and all the scenes are very realistic. "Captain Kate" is a Selig production, said to be the greatest wild animal picture ever produced. The third film is a Kalem comedy, "The New Cook."

FALLS IN CISTERN.

The three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gregg of 403 East Ninth street, fell into a cistern at the home of Lon Kennedy, a neighbor, last evening, but was not injured. The cistern was several feet deep, but only six inches of water stood in it.

POKER AND LAW

Judge Hoke of Sandy Bend Explains Relationship.

LOSER YELLED FOR JUSTICE.

Chinese Witnesses Said Game Had Been Square and Redheaded Mike Had Won Only Because of His Great Luck in Accumulating Full Hands.

By M. QUAD.

Copyright, 1911, by Associated Literary Press.]

WHAT is the cry that comes to me an hour after midnight, when the Red Dog saloon has been closed and I have sought my bed? "Judge Hoke of Sandy Bend as he opened court and looked over his audience. 'Is it the cry of a hungry coyote, of a prowling wolf, of a steer which has broken his leg in a stampede? Is it the cry of a night bird, a lost woman or a wounded man?'"

"Three nights ago such a cry came to my ears as I dozed, and I felt shivers go over me. I got up, seized my guns and opened the door. There stood the critter who had uttered the cry, and as he saw me he yelled out again: "Justice! Justice! Justice!"

"Not to get anybody worked up to a nervous state, let me tell you that Jack Taylor stood there before me. The cry had come from his lips. He sits over there on a bench, and his mug is familiar to all of us. He's been hanging around Sandy Bend for a matter of three years, and it's been generally believed that he was a handy man with a gun. I've been one who believed it, and when I think of it I could weep tears of chagrin.

Issued Warrant For Mike. "Yes, Jack Taylor stood there and yelled out that he wanted justice, and it was my opinion that he must have been terribly wronged. He tells me what seems to be a plain story, and my judicial sympathies are aroused, and I issue a warrant for Red Headed Mike and tell the constable to bring him in dead or alive.

"That's Mike over there. He don't know one end of a gun from another, and every Chinymen in town has given him the boot a dozen times over. He's red headed, but he hasn't got no more fight in him than a jack rabbit.

"Jack Taylor tells me that as he was going up the trail that night to his shack somebody holds him up with two guns under his nose and goes through him for $10. He recognizes that somebody as Red Headed Mike. He makes an awful struggle to save his dollars, but is knocked down and left for dead. When I heard of that bold faced robbery and assault within eighty rods of this yere courthouse I made up my mind to give Mike such a sentence as would make his hair curl in knots. He was found by the constable and brought in yesterday, and I don't think that any of you are gazin' at a desperado when you look at him.

Is All Right on Poker. "Now for the other side of the story. Mike was lookin' round for free drinks the other night when he runs across Jack. Jack asks him to come up to his shack and play poker. No matter what sort of a critter Mike is in other directions, he's all right on poker. This critter has holdin' him to his sorrow. His track of trilled him full houses and fours is simply remarkable. He goes along with Jack. He hasn't a red cent, but he has an old silver watch to make a pot on. He wins three on the very first pot.

"Then two Chinymen drop in and see the rest of the game, and they tell the same story. There's a five dollar pot on the table, and Jack gives three and draws down to his hand and bets $1. Mike gets two pairs and draws another queen to make a full house. He sees the dollar and goes one better. They see and raise, and when Jack finally calls he's a beaten man.

"The next pot is a little better for Jack. He stands pat on an ace full, while Mike holds up three tens and catches the fourth. Then it was a good thing to see. Mike's watch and winnins' and clothes was in that pot, and so was Jack's money and guns. When the call came he was a busted man and chills was gallopin' up and down his back.

Says He Is Ruined Man. "He yells out that he had been cheated, but the Chinymen swear that it was all fair play. Mike leaves a dollar on the table, accordin' to Hoke, and saunters off with the balance, and Jack Taylor cries out that he is a ruined man and falls down in a fit. It was after he had recovered that he comes crawlin' down to the Red Dog and I hear his wail from the darkness.

"Feller citizens, there is no more to be told. If any of you can't see that Jack Taylor is a squalor you've got patches on your eyes. You must also realize the principle at stake. The noble game of poker is totterin' to its fall, or would be totterin' if this yere court wasn't here to extend a bracin' hand. We may steal each other's hosses, but we must not steal the foundation stones of poker. The man who loses has to pay, and the loser who squeals can't abide among men.

"Jack Taylor, if you had anything to pay with I'd fine you $10 and costs, but as you are busted all I can do is to advise you to take a walk. Walk in any direction, but walk fast and keep goin'. If you show up in Sandy Bend agin within a year I won't be responsible for what may happen.

Poker and Sentiment. "Poker was invented not that one man might skin another, but that the nobility of soul of all men might be drawn to the surface and made better. The man who has stole hosses, abandoned his wife, driven his children out into the world and become a thing of evil can't sit in a game of poker with $20 in the pot and four aces in his hand without sentiment bubblin' up in his soul and carryin' him back to the happy days of childhood. I've knowed 'em right in my Red Dog saloon to rake in the pot and resolve to lead better lives thereafter. Poker built up the west and made it the noble and glorious country it is. Abolish the game and what becomes of us? In a year we would be wearin' tan shoes and eyeglasses and the gun would be relegated to the scrap heap.

"Mike, stand up. You've got all the money and Jack's guns besides. You haven't done anything to be fined for, but you've got to pay $6 costs allee same, and I'll take advantage of the occasion to observe that if you'll drop around to the Red Dog saloon this evenin' I'll start a little game for you and do my best to take them shooters off your hands.

Booze and the Law. "There's a little matter this yere court wishes to refer to this mornin'. Sartin individuals in Sandy Bend have been heard to say that it don't look quite the thing for a man to keep the Red Dog and run a hall of justice at the same time. I can't see where there's anything wrong. When I am in the Red Dog I'm one of you. When I am in this hall of justice I'm representin' the majesty and dignity of the law. I'm knowin' none of you to favor you over another. I'm lookin' to ladle out justice and give you a square deal, and the Chinymen who so for gets himself to spit on the stove never gets outdoor without a fine of at least $3.

"Here in the hall of justice my chest swells out. I am the 'it'. I rule the roost. I represent truth, integrity, law, justice and several other things.

"At the Red Dog I humbly set out the best drink for 15 cents to be found west of Chicago, and if I take a hand in a poker game it is only to be a good fellow and show my love of country. I separate one position from 'tother as wide as the poles, but any critter findin' any more fault will find himself sandwiched between the Red Dog and this yere court and both doin' their best to use him up.

"The calendar bein' clear, we will now disperse until justice calls us to gether agin to dispense her favors to rich and pore alike, no matter in what climate they was born in or what particular object brung them to Sandy Bend."

The Wrong Butt. The last time President Taft was traveling in Texas he was invited to a dinner of bacon and boiled cabbage. The invitation was telegraphed from the citizens of a small town to the president's private car, and was received by Captain Archibald W. Butt, the president's aid. After consulting with the president the captain telegraphed this reply:

The president accepts your invitation with pleasure. BUTT.

This is the way the message read when the prospective hosts received it. The president accepts your invitation with pleasure, but—© 1911, by American Press Association.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 8.—Arrival here of the huge silk envelope that is to form the sustaining power of a big dirigible in an attempt to cross the Atlantic ocean with Melvin Vaniman at the helm has aroused much interest. Vaniman expects to sail some time before the middle of October. He expresses confidence of better success than he and Wellman had last October.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR BARRED BY GOVERNOR

Colorado Feud Promises Some Excitement.

Denver, Col., Sept. 8.—On the eve of the governor's departure for the New Jersey divorce convention, a feud of long standing between Governor Shafroth and Lieutenant Governor Fitzgerald became violent. The lieutenant governor strode into the governor's office as Shafroth was clearing his desk for the last time before leaving and announced that he would take charge of the office and assume the duties of the governor in the morning. "You will do nothing of the kind," replied Shafroth, his red hair and mustache bristling. "I will lock up everything here and have the doors bolted, barred and guarded. You will occupy your own office or any place except this. I will not have you nosing around here, and you will not be allowed to enter here during my absence."

"I'll show you," said Fitzgerald, as he walked away.

The lieutenant governor later spoke to several thousand persons gathered at Rocky Ford for the annual melon day carnival and feast. During the speech he said:

"Governor Shafroth has barred me from his office during his absence, but by the eternal, when I get back to Denver I will break down the doors of his office if necessary and be governor in the governor's office until his return. I will do this if I have to call out the militia to do this work."

Gilbert Nichols of the Wilmington Country club is now the professional golf champion of the United States.

Town Development

Squatted among the corn-fields of southwest Iowa there is a little farmer's village named Griswold. Two years ago there was nothing to distinguish Griswold from any one of some hundreds of farmers' villages, scattered all over the central west. Commercial men forced to call there, studied their time-tables to see how soon they could get away. For Griswold, in the parlance of the commercial travelers, was a dead town. The merchants were asleep. Their stores were dirty and unattractive; their stock was old, shop worn, and out of date. The one bank in the village belonged to the same man who sold five-year-old clothing for the latest New York styles, and ran a one-story elevator, in which the farmers were permitted to store their grain—at a nominal fee. The farmers that lived about Griswold were a prosperous lot, but the only business concern in the hamlet that profited by their prosperity was the Rock Island Railroad, which carried their hogs and corn to Chicago, and themselves to Des Moines, where they spent most of the money that they got for their produce. These farmers never thought of trading in Griswold. It was a good enough place to buy their overalls, sugar, and coffee, but it was a poor place to shop. "Griswold," they said, "is a dead town." And the editor of the little four-page weekly paper echoed their wail. Griswold, he proclaimed, from every column of his little, run-down sheet, was a dead town.

One day in the early autumn, when the rich and fertile fields that stretched away from the village on every side, were yielding up their annual harvest of fruit and grain, the Rock Island passenger train left a stranger standing on the station platform. He was not particularly prepossessing looking stranger. He was tall and lean, and he looked over-worked and nervous. He was. He claimed Griswold as his birthplace, but he, too, had found it a "dead town," and, twenty years back, he had left the place. Like most other men who leave Iowa in their youth, he had gone farther west, and had finally settled in one of the coast cities. "In time he became the advertising manager of one of the big daily papers. At this time he had come back to the land of his birth to find the nerves and health which he had given for a half interest in the paper. He was looking for a quiet town and he found it. The first week he enjoyed it. The second week he found himself in need of some safety razor blades and went out to buy them. After a visit to every store in the village he came back to his hotel without the blades. A few days later he wanted something else, which he could not find on sale, and at the end of a third attempt at shopping he was thoroughly disgruntled.

"What's the matter with this burg?" he stormed, on his return to the hotel. "There isn't a decent store in town."

"Dead," replied the landlord laconically. "People all trade in Des Moines."

"Well, I'll resurrect the damned

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-eight per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored. Rexall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly, and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, or excessive looseness, diarrhoea, or other annoying effects. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Three sizes, 50c, 25c, and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, Lytle's Drug Store, corner Main and Third streets.

place," he replied heatedly. "I haven't got time to go to Des Moines every time I want a collar, or a new set of safety blades."

And being both energetic and a man of his word he set about doing it.

Diligent searching on his part revealed the fact that back in the days when Griswold had ambition to be the metropolis of the West, as had every other village west of the Mississippi, there was a commercial club. A personal canvass among the members resulted in an early meeting, and the man from the coast put himself on the programme for the principal address. He asked permission to take charge of the town for six months, and he used all his best salesman's talks to explain what he could do for the place. The men listened tolerantly, yawned openly, shook their heads sleepily, and informed him that Griswold was dead. But he persisted, and when finally he agreed to bear all the expenses himself, they told him to go ahead, as they couldn't see how he could do any harm. So he took off his coat and began.

He visited the various stores, overhauled their stock, sorted out all the old stuff, and put it on sale at bargain prices. He called at the newspaper office, inspected the equipment, hired a boy to wash the type and clean up the shop, and made up the advertising forms himself. The subscribers that week thought that they had been given the wrong paper. Never before in the history of the town had there been such advertisements. Never before had the local merchants offered such bargains. The good people thought it must be some trick, but their curiosity was aroused, so they arranged to come to town Saturday to see what it all meant. In the meantime a window trimmer had been imported from Omaha, and the stores took on a holiday appearance. When business closed that Saturday there was more cash in the tills of the various merchants than there had been before in all their experience. The window trimmer, stayed three months. Before he left practically every store in town had a plate glass front, and back of the glass was an attractive display of the store's goods. The business men began to hold Monday night smokers and some of the best salesmen, calling there, stayed over and gave talks on salesmanship. One or two outside business men were persuaded to visit the town, and the local men began to subscribe for trade papers and taking an interest in trade promotion. The man from the coast they agreed was a genius.

But he did not stop with the merchants. He found that the bank was incapable of meeting the demands upon it so he proceeded to organize another bank. The elevator he branded a farce, so he went after a new one, and brought it to Griswold. The streets were dirty. He hired men to clean them. The lawns were unkempt. A talk before the woman's club on civic pride resulted in a lawn-cleaning day in Griswold. A band was organized, and an instructor imported. When his six months were up he was regaining his nerves and health so fast that he decided to stay on. He planned and executed a Fourth of July celebration, which was attended by the people for miles around. Griswold boomed. The town took on an air of prosperity and traveling men stopping there marvelled.

FREE FAIR A SUCCESS. The financial result of the free fair has not yet been given out in detail, but it is known to have been a complete success, says the Connersville News. The amphitheater debt has been lifted and the financial status of the free fair is better than ever before. Already plans are forming for the erection of an educational building and other improvements for 1912.

GONE AT LAST.

HAPPY RESULTS

Have Made Many Rushville Residents Enthusiastic.

No wonder scores of Rushville citizens grow enthusiastic. It is enough to make anyone happy to find relief after years of suffering. Public statements like the following are but truthful representations of the daily work done in Rushville by Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Jacob Roth, W. First street, R. F. D. No. 4, Rushville, Ind., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been a standard remedy in my family for the past two years and I am firmly convinced that there is no other kidney medicine on the market equal to them. We have taken Doan's Kidney Pills time and time again and they have never failed to give relief from kidney and bladder trouble. I have such great faith in the curative powers of this preparation that I never fail to speak a good word for it when I hear anyone complaining of kidney trouble."

WHITE PLAGUE VICTIM.

John Monroe Ruckman, proprietor of a St. Paul bakery, died at his home in St. Paul at eight o'clock Tuesday evening. He had been a sufferer from tuberculosis for some time. Mr. Ruckman was thirty-eight years, four months and seven days of age at the time of his death. He leaves a widow and three children. The widow is also very ill.

SOME LOGIC.

Connersville News: If the Rushville Jacksonian really wanted Watson in the race as an "easy mark," it adopted a peculiar method of showing it. It should have lured him on with soft, honeyed words instead of discouraging the poor man with hints of sure defeat. That may be what's frightened him.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Alva A. Newsom and Mary C. Anderson; George Hite and Ida Newbro.

FOR INDIGESTION

Bad Dreams, Nervousness, Biliousness, and all Stomach Misery.

Go to F. B. Johnson & Co. today don't procrastinate—get a fifty cent box of MI-O-NA stomach tablets and get rid of all that annoying gas, sourness, heartburn, bloating and heaviness, they guarantee them.

There wouldn't be so many deaths from acute indigestion if sufferers would constantly carry a few MI-O-NA tablets with them.

Read this from a man 64 years old and then decide whether you prefer to suffer longer or not.

"I am on my second box of MI-O-NA. I received relief after taking two doses. I feel like a different man. I am 64 years old and MI-O-NA is the best thing I ever used for stomach trouble."—J. M. Burger, R. F. D. No. 3, Box 58, Wooster, Ohio. Fifty cents for a large box of stomach tablets at F. B. Johnson & Co. and druggists everywhere.

A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

A Little Sage and Sulphur Makes Gray Hair Vanish—A Remedy for All Hair Troubles

Who does not know the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorized druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agents, Hargrove and Mullin, Druggists, Rushville, Indiana.

SCIATICA

Is, as Nearly Everybody Knows, Extremely Painful.

The whole sciatic nerve is surcharged with pain, caused by inflammation, congestion or perhaps by a naturally rheumatic tendency found in many people. Eminent doctors and specialists agree that Sulfosol—soluble sulphur—is a dependable remedy in rheumatic conditions or predisposition. Inherited or otherwise, to rheumatism. In its truly soluble form, known as Sulfosol, sulphur is readily received into the blood, is quickly assimilated and manifests its greatest effectiveness in expelling uric acid from the system, and overcoming not only Sciatica, Rheumatism and Gout, but all blood and skin troubles. Sulfosol is therefore the logical and efficient solvent and eradicator of blood taints.

Sulfosol is the great vitalizer of the blood, expeller of uric acid and other blood taints and conquerer of Gout and Rheumatism. Get it of your nearest druggist or write to the Sulfosol Company, 72 Trinity Place, New York, for a free book on Gout, Rheumatism and Blood Disease and the successful use of Sulfosol in their treatment.

A clear healthy skin is obtained by the daily use of Sulfosol Soap, 25 cents a cake at all Druggists.

CANADA'S VERY SOUL AT STAKE

Rudyard Kipling's Anti-Reciprocity Message to Dominion.

DENOUNCES AMERICAN PLAN

In a Lengthy Cable to a Montreal Paper, Noted Writer Makes Clear His Opinion of What He Terms an Unsportsmanlike Proposition, Declaring That Canada Has Much to Lose and Nothing to Gain.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 8.—The latest recruit to the anti-reciprocity cause is Rudyard Kipling. The Montreal Star got him to write a letter to the editor and it was cabled to the Star and printed. Here it is:

"I don't understand how nine million people can enter into such arrangements as are proposed with ninety million strangers on an open frontier of 4,000 miles and at the same time preserve their national integrity. Ten to one is too heavy odds. No single Canadian would accept such odds in any private matter that was as vital to him personally as this is to the nation.

"It is her own soul that Canada risks today. Once that soul is pawned for any consideration Canada must inevitably conform to the commercial, legal, financial, social and ethical standards which will be imposed upon her by the sheer admitted weight of the United States.

"She might for example be compelled later on to admit reciprocity in the murder rate of the United States, which at present, I believe, is something over 150 per million per annum.

"If these proposals had been made a generation ago, or if the Dominion were today poor, depressed and without hope, one would perhaps understand their being discussed, but it is none of these things. She is a nation, and as the lives of nations are reckoned, will ere long be among the great nations.

"Why, then, when she has made herself what she should she throw the enormous gifts of her inheritance and her future into the hands of a people who by their haste and waste have so dissipated their own resources that even before national middle age they are driven to seek virgin fields for cheaper food and living?

"Whatever the United States may gain, and I presume that the United States proposals are not wholly altruistic, I see nothing for Canada in reciprocity except a little ready money which she does not need, and a very long repentance."

ROTTEN EGGS

Are Laid at the Door of Noted Railway President.

Philadelphia, Sept. 8.—At the instance of Harry P. Cassidy, special agent of the state's pure food department, George F. Baer, president of the Reading road, was served with a summons to appear and answer a charge of violating the pure food laws in causing the sale of bad eggs.

The summons issued by Magistrate Beaton and fixing the hearing for Sept. 14, was served on Mr. Baer in the outer office of his suite at the terminal. It was thrust into his hand by a constable who had followed Baer from the train floor, where he had alighted from his private car which had brought him from his country home near Reading. Mr. Baer appeared shocked and surprised when the document was served upon him. He made no comment, but went into his private office, where he called Mr. Cassidy on the phone. He wanted to know why he had been summoned. He was told for causing the sale of rotten eggs.

It is alleged that the railroad has persisted in selling putrid eggs left on its hands by consignees.

A Ban on Gambling.

Bloomington, Ill., Sept. 8.—The lid was clamped on gambling here and all resorts ordered closed following a shooting affray in which James Marion was shot in the head by Joseph Bernstein, following a dispute over a crap game.

Beaten by Narrow Majority.

Monmouth, Ill., Sept. 8.—By a narrow margin of fifty-one votes Monmouth turned down the proposition to issue $45,000 bonds for the erection of a new city hall.

THE MAINE'S MYSTERY MAY ALWAYS REMAIN

No Way of Telling How the Explosion Occurred.

Detroit, Sept. 8.—Examining the engineering work that is being done, General W. H. Bixby, chief of the United States engineering department, is touring this section of the great lakes. He declares that it is impossible to tell yet just how the Maine had been blown up in Havana harbor.

"The board made its report largely on inference," said the general, "but the conditions were such when the water was pumped away from around the wreck that it was impossible to say exactly what had occurred. There was an explosion in the magazine of the ship, and it tore the hull so badly that it is impossible to determine whether there was an external explosion first or not. Just what happened will never be known." Some time ago an eastern paper made General Bixby appear to put forth the statement that the battleship had been blown up from the inside.

"I did not say that it had been blown up from the inside," said the general. "What I did say, and what I say now is that the explosion of the ship's magazine tore it to pieces so badly there is no way of telling where the original explosion was, inside or outside."

SPORTING ODDS LAID AT 6 TO 5

In Favor of Conviction of Henry Beattie.

HAND BOOKS AT RICHMOND

Virginia's Capital, Which Has Been Absorbed to the Point of Obsession in the Beattie Case, Has Made a Matter of Sport the Jury's Action, and Bets Are Entered on the Outcome of the Long-Drawn-Out Trial.

Chesterfield Courthouse, Va., Sept. 8.—Confirming his belief in the credibility of the twelfth-hour witness who wrote to him confessing that he had seen the murder of Mrs. Beattie on Middlethian turnpike, Louis O. Wendenburg, commonwealth's prosecutor in the trial of Henry C. Beattie, now nearly completed, has received word from Chicago.

It is believed that Wendenburg has sent orders to the chief of police of Chicago directing him to hold this witness until he receives further orders. In a long conversation over the telephone Luther Scherer, chief of the prosecution's detectives, received from a lawyer in Chicago, who had examined the volunteer witness, sufficient verification of the truth of the man's story to cause Wendenburg to act immediately.

Wendenburg said that he would make no move to reopen the case of the prosecution and put this new witness on the stand. He believes that his case is strong enough to secure a conviction without this dramatic introduction of an eyewitness's story at the last minute.

But he is preparing to have the man in Chicago who so minutely described the incidents of the killing on the black Middlethian turnpike brought on here to be used against Beattie in case the jury in the trial fails to reach an agreement. The prosecutor does not feel that the chance of an acquittal is serious enough to warrant him delaying the trial for the added number of days necessary to bring the witness on from Chicago and put him on the witness stand. His name Wendenburg and his detectives are keeping secret.

There is every indication that Beattie's case will go to the jury tonight. Two of the lawyers finished their summing up speeches yesterday after the little brick courthouse had bulged for seven hours with oratory. Today Harry Smith said the last word for the accused and Wendenburg is rounding off the case for the commonwealth. Since Judge Watson charged the jury yesterday, the twelve will be able to retire as soon as Wendenburg finishes his summing up. That will be late this evening.

Already all Richmond, which has been absorbed to the point of obsession by the details of the Beattie case, has begun to speculate upon what the verdict will be. In several of the downtown saloons handbooks were started today and there are many bettors. The odds of the sports were 6 to 5 for conviction.

Beulah Binford Released.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 8.—Beulah Binford, the girl whose name has been so closely linked with that of Henry Beattie during the latter's trial, has been released from the county jail here, where she had been held for over a month as a witness. Upon leaving jail she hurried down to the station in the company of a New York vaudeville booking agent and took the north-bound train. She expects to turn her unsavory notoriety into cash as a vaudeville attraction.

HAVE FOUND A WAY

Navy Prepared to Repulse Attacks From Aeroplanes.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 8.—That the newly invented three-inch gun, especially designed to destroy airships, aeroplanes and other aerial craft that may be constructed in the future will do the work was fully demonstrated last night, when gunners on battleships destroyed eleven aeroplanes.

The aeroplanes or box-kites were fast to torpedo boats and several battleships. They were permitted to attain a height of 500 feet, then 800 feet and 1,200 feet.

The shooting was conducted with the aid of searchlights and without them, tiny lights tied in the box kites furnishing the only illumination for the gunners.

Will Contest Option Election.

Danville, Ind., Sept. 8.—The local option election recently held in Middle township and which was alleged to have been carried by two votes by the "drys," and the case will be taken up by the county commissioners. The contest is made on the grounds of fraudulent votes and other irregularities.

A Boy and a Gun.

Carmi, Ill., Sept. 8.—Roy E. Jackson, sixteen years old, who lived at Odin, is dead at Centralia from the effects of a gunshot wound. The boy was watching a balloon ascension at Odin a week ago and was holding a shot-gun in his hands. In some manner the gun was discharged.

LOCAL NEWS

Birney Sweet of this city has had an exhibit of chickens at the State fair in Indianapolis this week.

The New Castle city council has made the city tax levy $1.24 which is a reduction of one cent.

The Bartholomew county council has fixed the tax levy there at thirty-five cents, which is five cents lower than the rate prevailing this year.

The Madison county council yesterday at Anderson increased the county tax from thirty-four to thirty-six cents.

Greenfield is following in the footsteps of Rushville and making an effort to raise the money to install pedestal lights similar to the ones here. The county council there appropriated $900 for the lights around the court house square and the business men plan to put in 31 more.

An excellent likeness of James E. Watson shaking hands with Secretary Downing of the Indiana State Board of Agriculture appeared on the front page of the Indianapolis Star this morning. Seated by Mr. Watson's side was Charles W. Fairbanks, former vice-president.

REAL ESTATE BUSINESS GOOD

Transfers For Week Show That More Than $70,000 is Exchanged in County and City.

SEVERAL LOTS ARE SOLD

Greater Activity in Sale of Farm Lands, Largest Single Amount Paid Being $18,000.

Activity in the real estate business in the city and county was not so great as it was the week previous. The sales as noted in transfers only amounted to $69,122.50. There were several big land sales during the week, however, the price involved not being mentioned in the transfers in realty. Eighteen thousand dollars was the largest amount of money which changed hands in any one deal. That amount was paid by Catherine S. Johnson and husband to Warren W. Robbins for one hundred and twenty acres in Posey township. There were a number of city lot sales but mostly farm sales were negotiated as shown by the transfers which follow:

Richard C. Tonyes et al. to Roy Tonyes and Hugh Sparks, interest in 120 acres in Anderson township, $7500.

Peter Harrison and wife to Lemuel W. Warren, south one-half lot 339 and part lot 338 in Payne et al., trustees' addition to Rushville, $2000.

Wm. H. Turner and wife to Frank P. Martindale, 55/160 of an acre in Union township, $1 etc.

George E. Muire et al. to Bessie Vredenburg, lot 5 in the original plat of Rushville and part lot 152 in Pugh, Laughlin et al., Gdn. addition, $1 and partition.

Olive S. Conner et al. to East Hill Cemetery Company, lot 36 in section 2 of the cemetery, $210.

SQUIRES COURT TO BE BUSY

Two Cases Will be Tried Tonight Before Kratzer.

Squire Kratzer's court promises to be busy tonight as two cases will be tried. Charles Clevenger, charged with assault and battery on the daughter of Charles Wewee will be tried. The other case is that of the State vs. Mrs. Kate Morgan for provoke. The affidavit was filed by Mrs. William Curry. The trouble is alleged to have started over a chicken belonging to Mrs. Morgan, which was in Mrs. Curry's yard.

Indianapolis News: Harrie Jones was in the thick of it yesterday, with two winners and a second place. He seemed to have the law on his side in the third heat of the 2:24 trot, when Snedeker, with Clodagh, enched him out of the lead. The judges took a long time to investigate the situation, however.

SCHOOL BELL TO RING MONDAY

Prof. J. H. Scholl, Superintendent, Announces Books For High School Course of Study.

TEACHERS TO MEET SATURDAY

Some Changes Are Made This Year According to Superintendent's Announcement.

The pupils in all departments will assemble in their rooms on Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock when opening exercises will be conducted. Then will follow definite instructions about class work and the assigning of lessons for the afternoon. At 1:15 regular class instruction will be begun. The following instructions should be observed in reference to districts for pupils:

First Year Pupils—

Pupils living east of the center of Morgan street should report to Miss Edith Caldwell, second floor of the Graham school.

Pupils west of the center of Morgan street and south of the center of Fifth street should report to Miss Elizabeth Waite at Havens school.

Pupils north of the center of Fifth street and west of the center of Morgan street should report to Miss Lois Fritter at the Jackson school.

Second Year Pupils—

Pupils who were taught by Miss Pearl Applegate last spring should return to her room at the Graham school. These pupils will constitute 2A and 3B room.

Pupils who were promoted from Miss Edith Caldwell's room at the Graham school last spring and who will now be known as 2B's will report to Miss Belle Gregg at the Jackson school except those who are closer to the Havens school.

All other second year pupils who were at the Havens or the Jackson school last spring will report to the same school attended at that time.

Third, Fourth, Fifth Year Pupils.

All pupils residing south of the center of Fifth street will report to the Havens school. All residing north of the center of Fifth street will report at the Jackson school.

Grades 6B, 6A and 7A will attend the Jackson school.

Grades 7A, 8B and 8A will attend the Graham school.

Grades one to seven inclusive of the colored pupils will attend the Washington school. Those above the seventh year of the colored pupils will attend the Graham school.

upon the arrival of the excursion in Greensburg. Led by the band the excursionists will parade over the principal streets of Greensburg and red fire will be distributed over the "lone-tree" city liberally. Marshals and other parade managers will be appointed. The excursion train will stop at Milroy and it is expected that a large number from there will go.

Besides advertising this city and the fall horse show Rushville people who go down on the excursion will find much to entertain them at Greensburg. All sorts of amusements have been provided by the management of the jubilee and home-coming. The Greensburg papers are full of the announcements and descriptions of the attractions to be there during the big week.

After the excursion train arrangements had been made, President Schriebe made a short talk in which he urged that the merchants attend the meetings better and get together and prepare to do some much-needed work this fall. He advocated a banquet for the merchants of the city as a method of arousing the old spirit and interest. He said that with the coming winter, cooler and longer evenings, more merchants should take interest in the meetings and attend.

An anonymous letter, received by the secretary of the association from an Indianapolis resident, urging that the merchants association circulate a petition and require the C. H. & D. to build a new station here, was read. Merchants asked if such an action would serve to stop the union station plans and the opinion was expressed that it would not. The question will be decided at a later meeting when there is a more representative body of business men is present.

FALL PAINT TALK

The time for fall painting is at hand and we are going to paint your house, providing you want the best Paint that is manufactured and first class mechanics to apply it. The guarantee that we are able to give you on our CAPITAL CITY LIQUID PAINTS is unequalled.

See sample contract in our window.

We will contract your work complete or we will sell you CAPITAL CITY LIQUID PAINT for $2.00 per gallon and furnish you first class experienced painters at 35 cents per hour to apply it. Our 5 year guarantee holds good under either contract.

We expect to conduct our paint business along the same lines as we have our wall paper business. If a job is not satisfactory under our contract we will make it so. We are doing the painting and decorating, so get in line and let us do yours.
